December 2009

Merry Christmas & a Happy New year to everyone and we hope you have a very safe and enjoyable Christmas break.

Thanks you to everyone that came along and supported ADAC Agility this year it is always enjoyable and a pleasure to put on a trial for all as everyone always seems to have a good time even with Neville there.

Neville once again apologies for not being able to make the Championship trial, but it seems lately his required more and more in the Rottweiler specialty ring as a handler, and is already booked by people for 9 specialty shows all over Australia next year, we also have a new addition coming in the way of a male Rotty pup, Neville will be getting him at the end of January, looks like I will have to look at some more Kelpies I think.

Anyway we are looking forward to getting into the trials next year and catching up with all our friends, we hope to see everyone of you next year having a lot of fun and getting qualifications.

Congratulations to all the winners last year.
